

HI EVERYONE

Hi, I'm Annachiara and this is me...

I'm sixteen years old and I live in Frontignano, a small village near Brescia.

My family...

I live with my parents, but I haven't any brothers or sisters. I have two cousins and I consider them like my sisters. I have two cats and a golden fish.

COGSINS

My hobbies and stuff...

I like reading books, but I read comics too.

I play the guitar (I've just started), but most of all I like to draw.

In my free time, I also like hanging out with my friends or surfing the net.

I like almost all the sorts of music, in particular rock and hard rock.

In summer I go to the mountains, in a village near Bormio.

It's a beautiful place and you
can enjoy a lot of different walks.

In winter I go to the mountains and I ski.

I've started to use snowboard
with my cousin Paola.

It's very funny and we enjoy ourselves a lot.

Something more about me...

My favourite colour is blue.

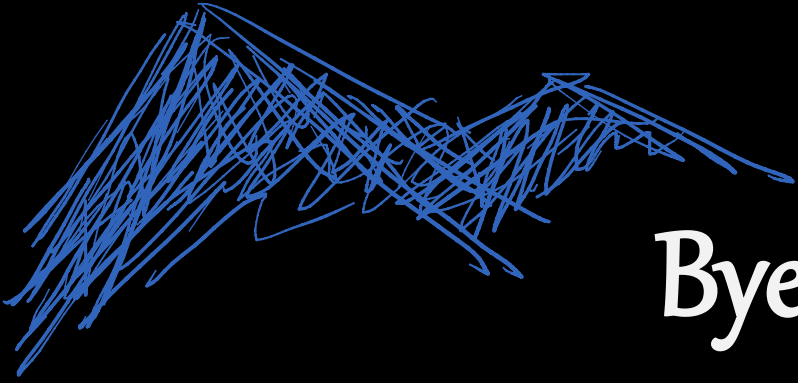

My favourite animal is the cat.

I also like travelling and visiting new cities. I wish to go soon to London and New York.

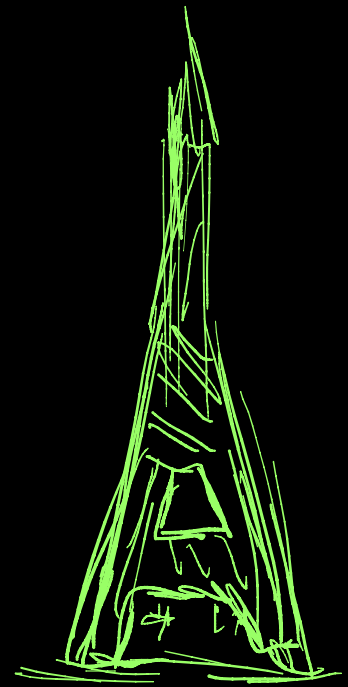

Last summer I went to Paris and I fell in love with it too.

Bye for now...

I hope to see you soon!
